

Car Window

Fallulah

Dangerous drive, won't you stay with me joy?
I couldn't be more happy
You look so tough, like it's easy enough
I'm not used to being happy

Could it be I'm wasting my time?
Could it be I'm only here for a little while?
I keep thinking I'm gonna die
Tomorrow
Watching the world from a car window

Nemesis friend, you come knocking again
You won't let me think it's over
For every smile, there's a price running high
My headband in search of [?]

Could it be I'm wasting my time?
Could it be I'm only here for a little while?
I keep thinking I'm gonna die
Tomorrow
Watching the world from a car window

It's ok, it's ok, it's ok, it's ok
It's ok, it's ok, it's ok, it's ok
It's ok, it's ok, it's ok, it's ok
It's ok, it's ok, it's ok, it's ok

Never expect, but is followed by [?]
Just hope to be grand exception
I look so tough, like it's easy enough
We make it my own protection

Could it be I'm wasting my time?
Could it be I'm only here for a little while?
I keep thinking I'm gonna die
Tomorrow
Watching the world from a car window
