

Amen

Falz

Through Jesus Christ our Lord (Amen)

Amen

Amen

Amen

Shout the loudest Halleluya

In the Name of Jesus

Amen

Halleluya somebody

Waka waka waka waka waka waka waka

Pull up in a Rolls-Royce Ghost

My bodyguard armed

Oga don't come close

I get bread, bakery dey my condo

But I dey feed five thousand with only one loaf

My dope dey flow

Oluwa gba control

My goal is to make sure you give Christ your soul

If you don't put your offering and tithe in the bowl

Blessing on your life go slow

Yea

Na so dem talk

We chop

We gullible to the core

If you drop all you got

Its impossible to be poor

Put your hands in your purse

Give everything to the church

And I promise you

The Lord will come knocking on your door

Its funny when you say

I'm moving like an unbeliever

It's ironic you tell me

To be my brothers keeper

Take our offering set up Uni

And your church member can't even afford the school fee

Yea

So the taste of that holy communion is too sweet

Be like say you don forget the thing you talk for pulpit

Everybody and their mama still dey take your bullshit

If my sermon worry you

E mean say the shoe fit

More Catholic than the pope

More faithful than the bishop yeah

I know some kind drug wey dem call religion

I dey pray to God

I hope I make it to his kingdom

But the man of God is busy raking in millions

Oh ohh

I just dey do kpa kpa kpa kpa

Shout the loudest Hallelujah

I know some fanatics go talk

Yeah it's more than likely

Person wey I fight for
Go turn around to fight me
You tell your doctor you enjoy the headache
Kill the messenger throwaway the message
Find sweet and sweet talk
Na em be the template
Church plenty pass school for inside my estate
You sell hope
You sell faith
You sell dreams to get paid
Na congregation money
But dem no go see percentage

...inside the church
Having succeeded in driving away the pastor
Some of the members spoke
On what could have caused the show of shame
"He raises funds in the church
And keep the money in his purse
Without giving to the church authorities"
"What this one has done
Is to destabilize the church
To destroy this church"

Somebody shout the loudest halleluyah

Wakawaka wakawaka waka waka

When I started the offering
At a thousand dollars
Then I said
If you don't got
If you don't got cash
Then we got ATM machines
I don't understand that logic
I don't understand that way of thinking
And I don't understand that to be what religion is
