Me, I no mind, buy me jeans from Yaba, Walahi
You set my heart on fire
Baby, who care about Dolce & Gabbana?
"Baby mi oh"
S'o ma ri mi later?
Meet me for the corner wey we chop Ofada
Make you no vex say I talk say 'Your father'

Even when your pepper no dey rest

"Ahnn"

I remember speaking phonetic
Trying to twist my tongue
I put on jean trousers like
"Can't you see am young?"
I remember borrow-posing
Tell my guy to play along
And the fake designer
Just so I can feel among
Fresh nighher to the core
But, they still tackle the boy
Say I claim to be foreign
And I didn't travel before
All these stupid shiit I said
Now, wish I could withdraw
All the time that I spent
Now, I wish that could be bought
But, I wish you can recall
So, you see that you're the cause
All because you felt for me

And you reach out for the door
It's because you turned around
And kee the ginger in my blood
This your case of strong-head
I will leave that one to God
But, thank you for your stubbornness
Now, I dey fit see
Say na only when I dey with you
When I dey feel free
That's when I can be comfortable
I can be me
And I still want to wake up with you, when I be 60
Ah, for better, for worse choice - to be this thing
Can't wait for the first child, when we do the christening
Oya, rub me on my chest, know, the thing dey sweet me
Sweet me, till infinity "Iwo nikan laye", it's history

Even when your head no want correct
Even when your pepper no dey rest
I hope say you no go forget?
Baby, you' Enough for me
T'o ba di ale, you hold me tight
Even when am wrong, you treat me right
Every single day, I realise

Baby you' Enough for me
Baby you' Enough, bae
Baby you' Enough for me
Baby you' Enough, bae
Baby you' Enough for me
Baby you' Enough for me
