Calling

Fame On Fire

Just to save you, I'd give all of me
I can hear you screamin' out, callin' me
It's my fault, made you fall for me (fall)
So, to save you, I'd give my all (my all)

Just to save you, I'd give all of me (all of me)
I can hear you screamin' out, callin' me (callin' me)
It's my fault, made you fall for me (fall for me)
So, to save you, I'd give my all (my all)

You fell for me, I count on you when times are tough
Instead of holdin' you down, I should lift you up
It hurts me when you start to see my flaws
But just to save you, I'd risk it all

Short on time for you, I'd never have enough
When I ran into you, I didn't plan on fallin' in love
Always there to wipe your tears, I hate to see you cry
If you ask me to jump, I'll ask you, "How high?"

I know sometimes it be hard for me to tell the truth
But I go through any obstacle to get to you
I'm not materialistic, but I got a thing for you
Treat the world like my guitar, I'm pullin' strings for you

Just to save you, I'd give all of me
I can hear you screamin' out, callin' me
It's my fault, made you fall for me (fall)
So, to save you, I'd give my all (my all)

Just to save you, I'd give all of me (all of me)
I can hear you screamin' out, callin' me (callin' me)
It's my fault, made you fall for me (fall for me)
So, to save you, I'd give my all (my all)

Let me be your hero
You held me down, I was stuck at the bottom
Get out of here, I get you lit, oh
I know you can't stand me
I remember when I bust down your rose gold, had your diamonds dancin'
I picked you up in that Bentley Mulsanne when them sirens was glarin'
I gave you the slammer, it's nobody else that got it, you can call me
The way I let you come into my life and take my heart away, it's like a robb ery

Every time you look up on the charts, now you seein' me, I hope you proud of me
I got you bussed down, Patek Philippes, ain't no way you goin' back to Carti s
And I splurge on that shit, like seeing a Zombie
Seen me out in a public, hardly
Low-key with my mask, I'm solo

If I don't speak to nobody, I'm sorry
And I'll save you if you can't save yourself
Hold on, let me catch my breath
Need a hero? I'm the last one left

Just to save you, I'd give all of me
I can hear you screamin' out, callin' me
It's my fault, made you fall for me (fall)
So, to save you, I'd give my all (my all)

Just to save you, I'd give all of me (all of me)
I can hear you screamin' out, callin' me (callin' me)
It's my fault, made you fall for me (fall for me)
So, to save you, I'd give my all (my all)
