

Chains (The Tower)

Fame On Fire

I'm on a path
You know what I'm thinking
Cancel my thoughts
Subscribe to my demons
I've made up my mind
No more deceiving
I'm filling the void
Time to get even

I just can't move on
I've waited for so long
The pain it goes beyond
I can't lie

If I break out of these chains
Would I save us from this curse
Will we turn to ash and burn
Do you think I'll make it worse?
And with all of my rage
Did I take it way too far
With these scars around my heart
I know I'll be torn apart
If I buried all my pain

Ready to go to war
What are we fighting for
It is my purpose 'cause I've become a prisoner
Of my insanity mixed with the memories
Stuck in my head I don't know who I'm meant to be

I cannot move on
I've waited for so long
The pain it goes beyond
I can't lie

If I break out of these chains
Would I save us from this curse
Will we turn to ash and burn
Do you think I'll make it worse?
And with all of my rage
Did I take it way too far
With these scars around my heart
I know I'll be torn apart
If I buried all my pain

Take it all away

If I break out of these chains
Would I save us from this curse
Will we turn to ash and burn
Do you think I'll make it worse?
And with all of my rage
Did I take it way too far
With these scars around my heart
If I buried all my pain

If I buried all my pain
