Fame On Fire

In my headspace
I feel like I'm nothing
Am I dead weight?
Everything around me
Is so fake
I feel like I'm drowning
I'm okay, I'm okay

In my headspace
I feel like I'm nothing
Am I dead weight?
Everything around me
Is so fake
I feel like I'm drowning
I'm okay, I'm okay

Sitting trapped with no way out
Prisoner of my self doubt
Can't believe this is my fate
Try to get up, but I fall on my face

Tell me why I'm here again?
What did I do? Who did I offend?
Is it cause of my disease?
I'm not running 'cause it follows me

Just shake it off
Told me not to let go
Said I'm here for you
But you don't know that

In my headspace
I feel like I'm nothing
Am I dead weight?
Everything around me
Is so fake
I feel like I'm drowning
I'm okay, I'm okay

In my headspace
I feel like I'm nothing
Am I dead weight?
Everything around me
Is so fake
I feel like I'm drowning
I'm okay, I'm okay

I don't know if I'm okay
Everyday drowning in my pain
Try to stay away from the pain you bring
But you got me caught up
Stuck locked in a cage
I can't make it out this way
My heart hurts and I'm trapped in my headspace
Numb me till I can't feel my face
I like it better when I can't feel anything
I won't let you bring me down

Pick me up and knock me down
I feel like we're all lost not found

Waiting for my chance to break away
Demons in my head won't let me breathe
Waiting for my chance to break away
Demons in my head won't let me breathe

In my headspace
I feel like I'm nothing
Am I dead weight?
Everything around me
Is so fake
I feel like I'm drowning
I'm okay, I'm okay

In my headspace
I feel like I'm nothing
Am I dead weight?
Everything around me
Is so fake
I feel like I'm drowning
I'm okay, I'm okay
