

Not Dead Yet

Fame On Fire

Please let it end, let it be over
I can not stand being sober
I'm so fucked up, I got problems
Tell me right now, do you think time will solve them?
So much on my mind that I can't think right
I need more drugs to feel alright
I can't feel a thing but that's okay
Are you still there? Can you take this away?

Just keep holding me
I can't believe, I'm hanging on
Pull me out of this
I'm over it, I don't belong

No, I'm not dead yet
I'm losing myself to the darkness in my head
Suffocating
Getting hard to breathe, everything is caving in
I won't let it
I keep weighing me down but this isn't how it ends
I'd regret it
No, I'm not dead yet

I would sleep forever if I could Do you like that? Cause I would
Can you not hold this over my head?
I have many faults, don't remind me again

Just keep holding me
I can't believe, I'm hanging on
Pull me out of this
I'm over it, I don't belong

No, I'm not dead yet
I'm losing myself to the darkness in my head
Suffocating
Getting hard to breathe, everything is caving in
I won't let it
I keep weighing me down but this isn't how it ends
I'd regret it
No, I'm not dead yet

Tell me right now is this really what you wanted?
I don't even care cause I'm laying at the bottom
Nothing left to give, all my options are exhausted
Yeah, I'm just trying

Tell me right now is this really what you wanted?
I don't even care cause I'm laying at the bottom
Nothing left to give, all my options are exhausted
Yeah, I'm just trying to be honest

(Yeah, I'm just trying to be honest)
(Yeah, I'm just trying to be honest)

No, I'm not dead yet
I'm losing myself to the darkness in my head

Suffocating

Getting hard to breathe, everything is caving in

I won't let it

I keep weighing me down but this isn't how it ends

I'd regret it

No, I'm not dead yet

Tell me right now is this really what you wanted?

No, I'd regret it

Tell me right now is this really what you wanted?

No, I'm not dead yet
