

Robbery

Fame On Fire

Walks in
Vixen of the night type shit I call
Maybe she's bluffing
But she knows
She will always gets her way
Oh I know where it's going

It's all a game till it's over
She'll rip your heart out and show ya
And now she's looking right at me
But no, I won't be a victim

Robbery
She's stolen hearts of names she can't remember
Lottery
She'll make you think you have the winning number
Gambling
She's 21 and dancing with the dealer
Luxury
You'll dream of paradise with her forever

Now we're changing up the scene
Mixing
Alcohol with gasoline
Now we're
Igniting everything oh
No more secrets

You love to lie
Makes you think that you're so invincible
You lie to love
But I won't be a victim

Robbery
She's stolen hearts of names she can't remember

She'll make you think you have the winning number
Gambling
She's 21 and dancing with the dealer
Luxury
You'll dream of paradise with her forever

She said
"My favorite part of life is Living life without regrets"
Baby now sit down, relax, relapse
I'm not gonna go back to my old ways
I went all in on this game
Oh you played your ace
Rubbed it in my face
But this won't be a
