

Intervention (Staple Jeans)

Family of the Year

Pour out, sad enough form
I'm wearing you, my favorite ones
You will never be replaced
The things we've been through
Heaven is so much less than this
Or maybe this it

My friends laugh at you now
But we even knew they bought some too
But they didn't last so long
They don't love you like me
Come on and don't be afraid
It's the best you can do

I wore you in, I wore you out
If there comes a day when I throw you away
Cause I tried you on, but you just wouldn't stay
Please still be my staple blue jeans

So stressed, so hard to pick one
I could wear instead of you
To make me feel like I'm the only
Somebody told me that I've changed
But I feel free

I wore you in, I wore you out
If there comes a day when I throw you away
Cause I tried you on, but you just wouldn't stay
Please still be my staple blue jeans

Back from whence you came
I'm so sorry I'm alive
Your qwaft and lone and have no home
You showing through my pants
And I'm alive again and I'm alive again

I wore you in, I wore you out
If there comes a day when I throw you away
Cause I tried you on, but you just wouldn't stay
Please still be my staple blue jeans
