

The Uprise

Famous Last Words

And we've been set free
From the grip of isolation,
From the torment of corrupt
And the immoral sovereignty.

They brought us peace at,
At the price so unforgiving,
So we commend their selfless deeds,
Cause now we're finally living!

We!
We won't let go, no (no)!
And we will stand up, round up everyone that we know,
And we will gather young and old to fight this war.
They gave us hope (hope),
So we will stand proud cast out hatred from ours homes.
We will never let go.

They fell as they choked
On their on words.
Our heroes put them all to shame,
In their places.

Cowering in disgrace,
They read the stories through our scars,
These words will dictate who we are!
No more!

Break out of the implacable, ruthless hold,
Eager to live so we'll finally take control.
Enough with the despicable, savage shit,
Malevolent, it's time to stand up and fight this.

We hold our homes, and we'll destroy the evil!

We!
We won't let go, no (no)!
And we will stand up, round up everyone that we know,
And we will gather young and old to fight this war.
They gave us hope (hope),
So we will stand proud cast out hatred from ours homes.
We will never let go.

Dear heroes,
Before you arrived, we were sad and afraid.
We thank you for your sacrifice, your deaths won't be in vein.
After the torture and pain that we had to underground,
We want you all to know..

They can break our bones,
They can beat us, whip us, throw stones,
But they can't break our souls.
They can try, but they'll be unable
To have our lives,
Our existence and our freedom.
We won't back down and we'll never be defeated.
We will rise!

We!

We won't let go, no (no)!

And we will stand up, round up everyone that we know,

And we will gather young and old to fight this war.

They gave us hope (hope),

So we will stand proud cast out hatred from ours homes.

We will never let go.

The devoted and strong, will always live on.