

Again & Again

Fancy

You try to find your way, again and again
Time after time you pray, again and again
You're on a way of love again
So reach out and take my hand
We'll fly away to distant lands
A faraway lands
You believe in love, again and again
You believe in love, again and again
And again and again and again and again
Oh, and again and again and again and again

Your love just fades away, again and again
Your generations fade, again and again
You strive to keep your love alive, finding a compromise
You'll find a place called paradise, so look for a sign
You believe in love, again and again
You believe in love, again and again
And again, and again And again, and again
And again, and again And again, and again
You believe in love, again and again
You believe in love, again and again, again and again

I plan to stay, but now I go
I'm moving on down the road
Beyond the sky, beyond control
Hold on to your soul
You believe in love, again and again
You believe in love, again and again
You believe in love, again and again
