

Closed Door

Faouzia

I'll take it easy
I'll take it easy

I've had it down since September that you didn't feel the same way
I've had it down since September that you didn't feel what I felt
And I keep looking for something that isn't there
Waiting for you to say the word but you wouldn't dare
You're too sweet but I'm losing sleep
You're too sweet but I'm losing sleep

Oh, don't pretend just stop pretending, oh
My mind's a mess, my heart is aching, oh
Don't you know it hurts more
When you're on the other side of the closed door
When you're on the other side of the closed door

I've had it down since September that I think that I'm a little lost
I've had it down since September that everything always has a course
And I keep looking for you but you're never there
Waiting for you to say the word but you wouldn't dare
You're too sweet but you're killing me, oh
You're too sweet but I'm losing, oh

Don't pretend, just stop pretending, oh
My mind's a mess, my heart is aching, oh
Don't you know it hurts more
When you're on the other side of the closed door

I'll take it easy, but I hate losing, no
I'll take it easy
I'll take it easy, but I hate losing, no
I'll take it easy

Oh, don't pretend just stop pretending
Oh, my mind's a mess my heart is aching
Oh, don't you know it hurts more
When you're on the other side of the closed door

Don't pretend just stop pretending
Oh, my mind's a mess my heart is aching
Oh, don't you know it hurts more
When you're on the other side of the closed door
When you're on the other side of the closed door
