

War

Farewell

Well you said you wanted war, but nobody wants to fail the future

If you say it's too late, it's not too late - I want to wake up on the

Day I found you - I want to wrap my shaky arms around you
I want to find a decent way to tell you I need to spend some time alone

I want to take this in the wrong direction - I want to say this to my Own reflection - I want to find a decent way to tell you I need to Spend some time alone - right now, it was the words that you

Were gunning for - all I wanted was to let you know

Just wait a second, and I'll give you what you're waiting for,
Or make a promise and refuse to show that things fall apart

Well you said wanted more, but nobody wants to wait forever

If you say it's too late, it's not too late - I want to show you

All the things I promised - I want to give away the things I won't miss

I want to find a decent way to tell you I need to spend some time alone

I want to write down all the things you say - I want to have you

In my life today - I'm gonna shout it from the rooftops - cause
I'm tired of being alone - back of the van

Not too late - don't have to wait - you want it all

Right now you know, everything that you said,

Just forget about it
