

In A Distance To God

Farmer Boys

Die my friend, come down to me
Receive our eternity
Open the doors of dark and light
The souls of black, the souls of white

They scream for you, they call your name
Are you the one who takes the blame
Twelve o'clock, your time is up
When will you ?

I reach my face
Fading into silence
Snatch my parts away

Recognition of my sin
Wash me on an island
I thrust me when I swim

Die my friends, come down to me
Receive our eternity
Open the doors of dark and light
The souls of black, the souls of white

You wash me pure, to spot me again
Lead me into your rabid temptation
To save my innocense

I've tried to pray, to light up myself

Down on my knees, to hear your sermon
Oh press me in your name

As the spurs kill the giant
As the drain the see
As the ocean swept the desep
As the rainbows smell like pee
Till you crucify love
Worse your love to ?
I forgive 'em, I forgive her
I forgive you, my own sin

Die my friends, come down to me
Receive our eternity
Open the doors of dark and light
The souls of black, the souls of white

They scream for you, they call your name
I am the one who takes the blame
Twelve o'clock, your time is up?

My friends, come down to me
End of reality
the doors of light
Only a soul
