

Another You

Faron Young

Her eyes may be a deeper blue but they remind me so much of you
She may even comb her hair a little shorter And when she walks into the room I smell the fragrance of your perfume
Yes, it just might be I found me another you

I never wanted it this way but there's one thing I can say She is givin' all the love I wanted you to When we're alone each night in bed she speaks the same words yo u once said
Oh, can it really be I found me another you

She looks like you she walks like you and when she whispers my name
It sounds so much like you're talkin' I feel you're in my arms again
There's a feeling I found with her that keeps you in my mind so clear
Yes, it just might be I found me another you
Oh, it just might be I found me another you
