

Foolish Pride

Faron Young

Foolish pride you drove her love from me
Foolish pride why did you set her free
Deep inside I know she still loves me
Foolish pride how foolish can you be

You let her walk away with tears in her eyes
When all you had to do was apologize
So I cried because of what you've done
Foolish pride now I'm the foolish one

You let her walk away with tears in her eyes
When all you had to do was apologize
So I cried because of what you've done
Foolish pride now I'm the foolish one
