

Forgive Me, Dear

Faron Young

I lost your love and started drinking
Trying hard to stop from thinking
Then I found that it was not the thing to do
I can't stop my heart from throbbing
Couldn't ease the pain by sobbing
Forgive me dear, and I will always do what's right

It's my fault my heart is broken
Angry words that we have spoken
I'm so sorry for now I have seen the light
I only hope that you still love me
'Cause I'll swear by stars above me
Forgive me dear, and I will always do what's right

Now I see that I was mistaken
And my heart is slowly breaking
Now I know that I was wrong right from the start
Let's renew our old romance dear
Please just give me one more chance now
Forgive me dear, and I will always do what's right
