

What Does It Take To Make A Grown Man Cry

Faron Young

Well what does it take to make a grown man want to cry
All it took in my case was the sound of your goodbye
And what does it take to make a man hurt like I do
All it took in my case was the thought of losing you
That's all it took to make the teardrops start
That's all it took to break my foolish heart
Now I know just what it takes to make a grown man want to cry
All it took in my case was the sound of your goodbye
That's all it took...
All it took in my case was the sound of your goodbye
