

Awkward Situation

Farrah

I just woke up in a strange bed Pulses runnin' through my head There's a strange girl lying next to me Oh, did we or didn't we?

It's a hazy recollection of a drunken conversation then a late night invitation Oh, I don't want to know.

It's an awkward situation, you and I
An awkward situation
wondering if we crossed that line
'cause if I could I'd close my eyes
and travel back in time
It's an awkward situation

I creep into the bathroom She's sleeping in the bedroom and I'm talking to the mirror Tryin' to get myself together

There's a certain obligation in avoiding confrontation Should I call her from the station? should I stay or go?

It's an awkward situation, you and I
An awkward situation
wondering if we crossed that line
'cause if I could I'd close my eyes
and travel back in time
It's an awkward situation

Then she wakes up in her make-up and nothing's said for so long

It's an awkward situation (3x) awkward situation (3x)

It's an awkward situation, you and I
An awkward situation
wondering if we crossed that line
'cause if I could I'd close my eyes
and travel back in time
It's an awkward situation
Such an awkward situation
