

No Reason Why

Farrah

There's no reason why
We're going to try to work it out
'cause you won't work it out

There's no reason why
Why can't you wear me down
It's just the way it is sometimes

He's in the day room
Sits by the window
Trying to picture how she smiles
He's going over the ways he loved her
She made everything worthwhile

And there's no explanation
No one left to blame
He ? ? ? and questions
but the answer's still the same

There's no reason why
We're going to try to work it out
'cause you won't work it out

There's no reason why
Why can't you wear me down
It's just the way it is sometimes

He talks about her
And drinks without her
Holding onto what is gone
He can't understand it
The way it ended
He can't go back and he can't move on

And there's no explanation
No one left to blame
He ? ? ? and questions
but the answer's still the same

There's no reason why
We're going to try to work it out
'cause you won't work it out

There's no reason why
Why can't you wear me down
It's just the way it is sometimes

Nobody knows
You can't explain
Give it away

There's no reason why
We're going to try to work it out
'cause you won't work it out

There's no reason why

Why can't you wear me down
It's just the way it is sometimes