Tired Of Apologising

Farrah

I'm in the doghouse again but I still don't know why
I wanna be friend's but all you want to do is cry
It's always the same
You're telling me we can't get by.
I'm tired of apologising everytime things go wrong
I'm tired of always trying everytime things go wrong, things go wrong, things go wrong.
I don't understand the things inside your head
One minute you're mad, the next you wanna go to bed.
I'm tired of apologising everytime things go wrong
I'm tired of always trying everytime things go wrong, things go
 wrong, things go wrong
I know that things aren't easy
I never meant to stress you
I've walked on eggshells lately
Do you have to blame me?
I'm tired of apologising everytime things go wrong
I'm tired of always trying everytime things go wrong.
I'm tired of apologising everytime things go wrong, things go w rong, things go wrong.
