

Never fall in love

Fashawn

im always on the go so i try to make time call to say hello, let her know im fine when i be on a roll O.T on the grind friends sayin leave her alone at least try but i dont i just keep goin back dont know why frontin like i aint attatched i could lie i tell her baby we should relax, take our time aint lookin for contracts or dotted lines admit it the feeling is strong cant deny im addicted first glance we locked eyes months later, we together no suprise months prior, i was hangin out with them guys before going out to the club became a crime i was &%@^% handling things on ma mind i flirted with dimez while *^#& went thru the town too young to be sprung, a lock down soo, why dont we just take our time

aint no need to rush,
how come she stays on my mind
she even makes me blush why cant we just take our time
i never fall in love

sometimes i hate her half the time i love her once all the time thats when i feel smothered i try to remind her im not her husband try to convince myself we not lovers howd i get myself into this all of a sudden must of slipped something into the drink i was guzzlin could it be the way that she moves gotta be somethin about her, i dont usually save numbers i just keep it movin. on to the next one wont be long untill Shawns at the exit i gotta list thats long full of ex's ones that cool and some i never mess with girls that i hit but we had no connection relationships didnt last a semester this new chick got my head in the clouds actin like wifey needs to slow down wow, why dont we just take our time

aint no need to rush,

sometimes i make her blue

sometimes she makes me smile dont know what to do ask her could she stay a while

dont know what to do (nah)

i swear i dont know it seems i wanna leave but i wont go she got a hold on me but i cant go far as commitment maybe when i get older i could be there she can lean on my shoulder bad timing right now im focused on my career back and forth with the road trips hard to &^*@#&#$ she gotta nigga open

i never fall innn.....
