Now I feel so lonely but I gotta be strong to take right decision you left me alone but I didn't know why...I was angry and sad with the passion of emotion then I made up my mind 'cause I lost my old vision I will survive and I will not cry...No matter it hurts me I will never forget the tears and grieves in your eyes I felt something strange somewhere deep inside however you want me...I don't want you back,you're not part of my life I don't want you back you have poisoned my blood
