You're evil
You're reckless at true
I am sick and tired of people like you
For money and power, you commit that crime
Blood and disaster is what you leave behind
Now it's coming back to you
Man, and it's time to face the truth
Whole world cannot wait, wait to see you run away

Everything you've done, it's gonna stay around
What goes around comes around yea
Everything you've done, it's gonna stay around yea
What goes around comes around yeah
Everything you've done is gonna stay around

They just try occupy middle east
Those who they fear the call enemies
Hate is blind, it's a spreading disease
Those fuckers throws bombs in the name of peace
The whole world is bleeding
War is enemy to all mankinds
All that you're reading
The papers is lie

Everything you've done, it's gonna stay around
What goes around comes around yea
Everything you've done, it's gonna stay around yea
What goes around comes around yeah
Everything you've done is gonna stay around

Everything you've done, it's gonna stay around
What goes around comes around yea
Everything you've done, it's gonna stay around
Everything you've done, it's gonna stay around
What goes around comes around yea
Everything you've done, it's gonna stay around
