

Wherever You Go

Fast Food Orchestra

I wished you love me for a 100 years
And now I laugh to hide my tears
I feel blue, I can't make a move
Not now, not without you

What the hell am I doin' here
Oh God, I wish I could disappear
Don't know what to do, but I cannot move
When I see you smiling

Wherever you go oh oh oh
There's one thing you should know oh oh oh
I'm spending all my time loving you
Over and over again

Whatever you do ooh oo-oooh
I'll be right here for you ooh oo-oooh
I'm spending all my time loving you

I'm getting stronger now
And I've got balls to say it all
Now we don't even talk
But we were best friends long ago

I'd do whatever you want
I thought at least you gimme a call
One thing I'd like to know
Was there ever really love at all?

Oh how many times
I told myself it's gonna be fine
Love at first sight
You were shy and you were one-of-a-kind

But now it's time to say
That I felt so much pain
Don't know you're ready or not
And frakly I don't care

Wherever you go oh oh oh
There's one thing you should know oh oh oh
I'm spending all my time loving you
Over and over again

Whatever you do ooh oo-oooh
I'll be right here for you ooh oo-oooh
I'm spending all my time loving you

All the dreams just fell apart
We are two but one broken heart
Cause nobody knows that I wanna be close
And you're still little bit too far

I want to tell you how I feel
I wanna hold you, make it all real
Don't know what to do but I cannot move
When I see you smiling

Wherever you go oh oh oh
There's one thing you should know oh oh oh
I'm spending all my time loving you
Over and over again

Whatever you do ooh oo-oooh
I'll be right here for you ooh oo-oooh
I'm spending all my time loving you

Wherever you go oh oh oh
There's one thing you should know oh oh oh
I'm spending all my time loving you
Over and over again

Whatever you do ooh oo-oooh
I'll be right here for you ooh oo-oooh
I'm spending all my time loving you
