

Daydream

Fastball

Daydream, lose yourself between the notes
Daydream, take a sip and then you'll float away
Drifting across the great divide

Glimmer, turn the water into wine
Shimmer, mix your colors in with mine
You'll go
Drifting across the great divide

And here there is no fear
There is no sorrow
Only the sun
I hear your voice in the wind
You're nobody's child
Long may you run

Daydream, floating like an astronaut in silence
Traveling at the speed of thought
You'll go
Drifting across the great divide

And here there is no fear
There is no sorrow
Only the sun
I hear your voice in the wind
You're nobody's child
Long may you run

Daydream, floating like an astronaut in silence
Tame the river of your thought
You'll go
Drifting across the great divide

Drifting across the great divide
Drifting across the great divide
