Fastway

I really thought it was a real thing
She knocked me right between my eyes

It wasn't passion, it was playthings
'Cause all the flame should turn to fade
She tore me up and left me cry there
Oh, like a piece of.....

Ref.

Big beat, no heart
Cold hand, hot stars
Big noise, no sound
High wire, no ground
Big beat, no sound
Hot beat, die out
I can't hit it anymore!

It had me eating from her fingers
Or just a shadow of a man
Just like the star that never lingers
She was the starlet to the.....

She was the boss' big story
Or maybe just another night
I should have seen he had it falling
I must have missed a danger sign
