

Little By Little

Fastway

As I walk these lonely nights
The painted sky was full and bright
I'll take no chance in you being my friend
It's time to say goodbye
Goodbye
Yeah, yeah
I got my eyes on you
You know you're driving me wild
Why don't you come on
You're such a cold and lonely child
I'll take it, I need it
Don't ask me for reasons
Hear me, somebody
You know what I'm saying
I'll steal your love
Little by little
Steal your love
Little by little
Steal your love
I said my mind's made up
I need to know the answer
Ain't gonna hang on
But I'm holding you for ransom
I'll take it, I need it
Don't ask me for reasons
Hear me, somebody
You know what I'm saying

I'll steal your love
Little by little
Steal your love
Little by little
You cannot run, you cannot decide
You cannot keep it deep inside
You only know when it happens for real
Now you know
Now you know how I feel
Oh, yeah, yeah
I'll take it, I need it
Don't ask me for reasons
Hear me, somebody
You know what I'm saying
I'll steal your love
Little by little
Steal your love
Little by little
Yeah, I'll steal your love
Little by little
Steal your love
Oh, little by little
I'll steal your love
Little by little
I'll steal your love
Little by little
I'll steal your love
Little by little
Steal your love

Little by little...
