Fat Freddy's Drop

You'd better run for shelter, Don't leave it too late. You'd better do it now, There's a devil at your gate. The northern breeze is blowin', I wanna pick up pace, So when the mornin' comes, There'll be no time to waste.

You gotta hold the house down, Yes you gotta be strong. There's a thief out on the loose and it means to steal your home.

You gotta hide the children, Gotta keep them well away. There's a killer roamin' free in your neighbourhood today.

You'd better run for shelter, Don't leave it too late. You'd better do it now, There's a devil at your gate. The northern breeze is blowin', I'm gonna pick up pace, So when the mornin' comes, There'll be no time to waste.

You gotta hold the house down, Yes you gotta be strong. There's a thief out on the loose and it means to steal your home.

You gotta hide the children, Gotta keep them well away. There's a killer roamin' free in your neighbourhood today.

Keep runnin', now.

You're a thief, you're a liar, You wanna steal my fire She took my family, Took the very part of me.

You're a thief, you're a liar, You wanna steal my fire She took my family, Took the very part of me.
