

Alone Again

Fat Nick

It's been long time comin'
I'll chase you, start runnin'
She hates when you start callin'
My problems fail when you walk in
Now my heart keeps sinking when I'm around you
Watch your eyes turn blind, think you startin' to cry too
Got me up all night, yeah, you know I could lie to you
Yeah, you know I could lie to you

You need me, but you would never admit it
Suicidal love, going deaf in the cockpit
If I got my pistol, why you cheerin'? Just stop it
She cut so deep, it's these wounds that I'm washin'

I fucked up, I guess I was wrong
And now I'm alone again
She walked out the door again
I fucked up, I guess I was wrong
And now I'm alone again
She walked out the door again (Fuck it)

Five years passed, the marriage, she regrets it
See me on the Forbes list, now she feelin' lovesick
Still pop Percs, you know I'm livin' reckless Fucked your best friend, your name put on the necklace
Might be the last time you see my face
I'm down the road, but you're a world away
Feels like someone's gonna die
Today, I'm fed up, tomorrow's just a waste

You need me, but you would never admit it
Suicidal love, going deaf in the cockpit
If I got my pistol, why you cheerin'? Just stop it
She cut so deep, it's these wounds that I'm washin'

I fucked up, I guess I was wrong
And now I'm alone again
She walked out the door again
I fucked up, I guess I was wrong
And now I'm alone again
She walked out the door again (Fuck it)

I fucked up, I guess I was wrong
And now I'm alone again
She walked out the door again
I fucked up, I guess I was wrong
And now I'm alone again
She walked out the door again

Fuck it
