Home Sick

Fat Nick

Don't say it's over
I'm okay just livin' without you

Thank you for comin', you won't regret this
Can't find the words for you to feel this
I said I love you, but never meant it
Those were withdrawals, I wasn't lovesick
Walk out the door, but never leave me alone
Too much to lose, don't wanna sleep on the floor
I'm gettin' high again, you can't be mine again
Stayin' up late, hate I'm the one you ignore (I'm the one you ignore)

Don't say it's over
I'm okay just livin' without you
Don't say it's over
I'm okay just livin' without you

I wake up, days wasted
Our handprints dried up in the pavement
Cigarette on her breath, now she naked
Big Beamer truck, DD, now she faded
Shameless, aimless, wonder what her name is
Left the small town, big dreams, livin' nameless
Cheap beer, cigarettes, the ritual
This'll be the last time you hear me out

Don't say it's over
I'm okay just livin' without you
Don't say it's over
I'm okay just livin' without you

If I don't love me, how could I love you?
I'm not too far, I'm right there behind you
You fucked him, so how could I want you?
I still call my ex, but I want you
If I don't love me, how could I love you?
I'm not too far, I'm right there behind you
You fucked him, so how could I want you?
I still call my ex, but I want you

Don't say it's over
I'm okay just livin' without you
Don't say it's over
(If I don't love me, how could I love you?)
(I'm not too far, I'm right there behind you)
I'm okay just livin' without you
(You fucked him, so how could I want you?)
(I still call my ex, but I want you)

If I don't love me, how could I love you?
I'm not too far, I'm right there behind you
You fucked him, so how could I want you?
I still call my ex, but I want you
If I don't love me, how could I love you?
I'm not too far, I'm right there behind you
You fucked him, so how could I want you?
I still call my ex, but I want you

If I don't love me, how could I love you?
I'm not too far, I'm right there behind you
You fucked him, so how could I want you?
