I'm Close Behind

Fat Nick

I don't wanna wake up, I don't wanna move on
I got one too many bitches yeah all singing my song
You can blame it on me but I was right all along
I hear your voices in my head, I feel like running through walls
I don't wanna wake up, I don't wanna move on
I got one too many bitches yeah all singing my song
You can blame it on me but I was right all along
I hear your voices in my head, I feel like running through walls

I said this last time
Hope that I'm not fucking-fucking right again
Just be mine
Can't you see my mental's on the decline, rewind
When I think about you all I think about is bad times
Wish I would have left you in the past
When you're lost you've got memories that haunt you
I just want to find another one just like you
I traveled across the world, I couldn't find one like you
I wonder if you'd ever cry when I died too

I don't wanna wake up, I don't wanna move on
I got one too many bitches yeah all singing my song
You can blame it on me but I was right all along
I hear your voices in my head, I feel like running through walls
I don't wanna wake up, I don't wanna move on
I got one too many bitches yeah all singing my song
You can blame it on me but I was right all along
I hear your voices in my head, I feel like running through walls

Voices in my keep standing
Can't get by if you're not with me
Wondering if you'll ever miss me
Hearts on stand-by now
But I can't get too stuck on you
If it don't stick, can't get lost without you
While the time tick, can't slip when I move
If we don't mix, I'll say bye if I want to

I don't wanna wake up, I don't wanna move on
I got one too many bitches yeah all singing my song
You can blame it on me but I was right all along
I hear your voices in my head, I feel like running through walls
I don't wanna wake up, I don't wanna move on
I got one too many bitches yeah all singing my song
You can blame it on me but I was right all along
I hear your voices in my head, I feel like running through walls
