

Morena

Father

Eleven, eleven, let's make a wish
Your legs and mine, let 'em cross and criss
It's '97, I'm trynna floss with Cris'
Like the new jigga man, I'm the boss of this
Just put the crew on, then copped a new home
My walls is too white, I'm trynna paint it with your skin tone
Playing with your parts, hopping in and out the friend zone
Laying on your heart, drinking up until the Hens gone

Boricua, morena [x8]
(Look at what I've done
I did it all for you
Build it she will come
I did it all for you
Knew that she would come
I did it all for you
Knew that she would cum
I did it all for you)

Boricua, morena
Colombiana, Dolce & Gabbana
I been young, hot like they birthed me in a sauna
I send young thots with the work in their vaginas
Yo, riding down Cascade, looking for new real estate
Scrolling down Backpage, know I got the films to make
Can't help feeling like a fucking kingpin
Don't walk in my door without fucking ringing in What's that bring it in, Snapchat tell your friend
Cause I'm starting to feel like I'm untouchable
Don't bring your bitch around me if she fuckable
Cause she probably made her mind up before she fucked with you
Hell nah, I don't fuck with you, bitch I'm not cuffing you
Only fuck with hoes that look like Denise Huxtable
Nah I don't care if you sucked a few
Just don't look at me crazy if I ain't in love with you

Look at what I've done
I did it all for you
Build it she will come
I did it all for you
Knew that she would come
I did it all for you
Knew that she would cum
I did it all for you

But for me I don't know, I'm in love with the liquor, slicker, alcoholic
But fuck the future let's live in the moment, morena
