

Up Still

Father

Forgive me father

Everything dies
Everything's alive
Never ever trust another nigga with your life
Never ever trust another nigga with your wife
Your circle keep it tight
The purple keeps it tight
Everything dies
Everything's alive
Never ever trust another nigga with your life
Never ever trust another nigga with your wife
Your circle keep it tight
The purple keeps it tight

Up, still
Cups filled
Touch filled
Why we up still
Cups filled
Cups filled
Tough filled
We up, still

Game of chess
Aim at necks
Game of Thrones
You playing checkers
Fuck your neckless
Take your hair and bone
What I speak is very strong
Girls I've fucked is very on
I need your C note
Valentino
Spit that [?]
I keep [?]
Call me 'lil hydro-codon
Cook so clean though
I could put your soul on
I need your C note
Valentino
Sip that 'Bino
Black Tuxido
Table for two
James Bond

Everything dies
Everything's alive
Never ever trust another nigga with your life
Never ever trust another nigga with your wife
Everything dies
Everything's alive
Never ever trust another nigga with your life
Never ever trust another nigga with your wife
