

Wine

Father

Out the ash, like a Phoenix
Look at my neck
Look at my ice, gleamin'
Hit 'em with being a cesarian
Every season, William's sisters they gon' lean in Apricots, passion fruits, clementines, peaches
These bitches love my semen
Red wine, white wine, dutty wine
Grind on me like it's the fucking weekend
(Grind on me)

Hit me on my celly
Girl I need my belly rubbed
I just really wanna touch, yeah
She like "You just wanna fuck," yeah
Hell is hot and I'm fucked up
She like "Fuckboy, I hate you"
IDC, I'ma stay true

Baby, you should take your time
Sippin' on this wine
Empty what's inside
Dance on him from left to right
You're looking so divine
I just want to kiss you until we can be for life

Bottle after bottle, swear you do this out of spite
You hate me but I love you, yeah
We drink until we fly

You hate me but I love you, yeah
We drink until we fly

You hate me but I love you, yeah
We drink until we fly

Yeah
Tommy Hill, ice rocking' nigga
I don't really even rock with niggas
I just know how to work the room
Skrtrt skrtrt, switch gears, vroom
I was put here to piss you off
She was put here to get me off
Niggas out here falling off
Still hot like a Molotov
Rocking some places with faces
Put my dick in, let her taste it
My pants held up with shoelaces

I like fucking on the basics
Keep them bougie hoes away
Don't like hella niggas on stage
I came in this world all alone
That's how it's gon' be when I'm gone

Standing on corners
Whispering "I got that loud,"

When your bitch been on my dick
Trying to see what I'm all about
I stopped popping all those pills
So now I cannot stand these crowds
You caught me with this shit
Lately I been full of self-doubt

Red wine
Drinking red wine
Drinking red wine
Drinking red wine
I been drinking red wine
Too much red wine

Baby, you should take your time
Sippin' on this wine
Empty what's inside
You're looking so divine
I just want to kiss you until we can be for life

Bottle after bottle, swear you do this out of spite
You hate me but I love you, yeah
We drink until we fly

You hate me but I love you, yeah
We drink until we fly

You hate me but I love you, yeah
We drink until we fly
Ooh
