

Breakin' the Ice

Fats Waller

She was as cool as could be,
Though I said hello to her twice;
Now I can take her to tea,
Looks like I'm breakin' the ice!

I call around every day,
And her people treat me so nice!
They seem to think I'm okay,
Looks like I'm breakin' the ice!

Bit by bit
I've been makin' a hit,
I'm afraid everything's gonna be alright, (if you know what I mean!)
Rome, they say,
Wasn't built in a day,
Or romance built in a night! (no!)

But we saw the ring in the store,
And I'm gonna save up the price.
I guess you know what it's for,
Looks like I'm breakin' the ice!

She was as cool as could be,
Though I said hello to her twice;
Now I can take her to tea,
Oh, it looks like I'm breakin' the ice!

I call around every day,
And her people treat me so nice!
They seem to think I'm okay,
Looks like I'm breakin' the ice!

Bit by bit
I've been makin' a hit,
I'm afraid everything's gonna be alright,
Rome, they say,
Wasn't built in a day,
Or romance built in a night!

Oh, we saw ring in the store,
And I'm gonna save up the price.
Oh, I guess you know what it's for, (you don't?)
Looks like I'm breakin' the ice, yeah!
