fats'e

Youngburial, thank you for the goddamn party
Lifegodd

I put my all into it
All my pride and all my passion
It's all an illusion
I've been altering my mind
I'm fueled by delusion
10 years went and passed me by
I disregard the present
Stuck in the passing of time

I've been rolling the dice
I've been staying inside
Insecurities died
Won't let anyone try
Try to ruin my life
Try to keep me in line
Everyday I've been fried
But I'm finding my peace

Blow me up
Can't you let me be
When I'm up
It's all that they see
Cut me off
That's all that I need
I can't trust
Anyone for real
