

broken glass

fats'e

The broken past cuts like a knife
The broken glass falls right from your eyes
Let it fall
Can we see more?
Another year goes by in a flash
Another speed bump into whiplash
I fell too far
I can't be normal

I'm an outcast and I'm a reject
I'll pretend to fit in but it's a dead end
I'm unlikable and yeah, I get that
Burned some bridges, yeah, I understand
Leave me behind, I'll be fine
I'm already alone all the time
I'm an outcast and I'm a reject
I'm unlikable and yeah, I get that

I look down, see my reflection
In the broken glass laying in front of me
These rose colored glass eyes take my
Concentration right the fuck away from me
I look down, see my reflection
In the broken glass laying in front of me
These rose colored glass eyes take my
Concentration right the fuck away from me

I'm an outcast and I'm a reject
I'll pretend to fit in but it's a dead end
I'm unlikable and yeah, I get that
Burned some bridges, yeah, I understand
Leave me behind, I'll be fine
I'm already alone all the time
I'm an outcast and I'm a reject
I'm unlikable and yeah, I get that
