

Cold Shoulder

Can't tell if I'm awake or not
Just thankful for the time I bought
I cut you off, you cut me off
I turned my back on everyone

Cold Shoulder

No offer
Won't trade for my life
Night Walker
Dream Eater
Can't open my eyes
Can't open my eyes

I just came in contact with my death
I've been watching from the sky
Out of body, out of mind
I don't wanna die
I've been watching myself decay
Took my soul don't take my heart away
Now I'm witnessing my last breath
Put a nail in my own casket
Every memory a fragment
Every heartbreak not as tragic
Every moment is elastic
Every memory a fragment

Can't tell if I'm awake or not
Just thankful for the time I bought
I cut you off, you cut me off
I turned my back on everyone
