

ignore everyone

fats'e

This confidence it doesn't last, it always feels so fake to me
I've fallen off the boat, I'm drowning in my insecurities
I know that I'm impossible to read, I cannot read myself
Sarcastic to the point that no one reads into the cries for help

I've really gotta take my own advice, ignore everyone else
I'm paranoid and doubtful, I can't cope, I think I'm doing well

I've really gotta take my own advice, ignore everyone else
I'm paranoid and doubtful, I can't cope, I think I'm doing well

Up and down, mood swings
False feelings, no love, no strings
Can't trust anything
Pride to the ceiling, laughing

Up and down, mood swings
False feelings, no love, no strings
Can't trust anything
Pride to the ceiling
(Ceiling)

I've really gotta take my own advice, ignore everyone else
I'm paranoid and doubtful, I can't cope, I think I'm doing well
