

ok i forgive u

fats'e

Leave me out to dry
Like the clothes you forgot outside
Like I left you in the rain
With no umbrella
Leave me out to die
In a graveyard of your choice
I'll dig the hole and everything, it's cool

You've done enough, I know you have, I'm just stubborn
Ignoring everyone in my past, put on the back burner
Having conversations with myself, lying in bed
But I can't forgive you yet, no I can't forgive you yet

I'm over it now
Grudges like landslides
They all crumble away
In front of my eyes
I think that I need to Get over myself
Don't you think I do, I do, I do, I do

You've done enough, I know you have, I'm just stubborn
Ignoring everyone in my past, put on the back burner
Having conversations with myself, lying in bed
But I can't forgive you yet, no I can't forgive you yet
