(So will I feel this way forever
So will I feel this way forever-ever)

So will I feel this way forever
You hit me back like ain't no pressure
Can I come and get my sweater?
I'm about to pull the lever
I'm about to disappear
I don't think we can be together

So will I feel this way forever
You hit me up like it's whatever
I'm a mess, you can do better
I'm about to pull the lever
I'm about to disappear
I don't think we can be together

I won't lead you on
I've been building these walls again
Stuck in the mud
I'm trying to build trust again

You can see in my eyes, see my weakness
I shut myself off, I can't feel a thing
You can tell I gave up, I'm defeated
And now I'm just relieved that you understand

So will I feel this way forever
You hit me back like ain't no pressure
Can I come and get my sweater?
I'm about to pull the lever
I'm about to disappear
I don't think we can be together

So will I feel this way forever
You hit me up like it's whatever
I'm a mess, you can do better
I'm about to pull the lever
I'm about to disappear
I don't think we can be together

You can see in my eyes, see my weakness
I shut myself off, I can't feel a thing
You can tell I gave up, I'm defeated
And now I'm just relieved that you understand

(So will I feel this way forever
So will I feel this way forever)
