fats'e

I'm having trouble breaking habits 'cause I never learn
I know there's room for everybody, so I wait my turn
I'm dropping songs like every week, I'll never take a break
I made a way, you work a job, and that is such a shame
Bombs fall from the sky, I'm seeing angels collide
Scarecrow scaring people, never being polite
Stay sharp, never dull, like the tip of a blade
Scarecrow, only good at pushing people away

Don't look my way, don't wanna talk, I fucking hate to converseate
I'm so used to being lonely, always bathing in the shade
Don't know why she wanna love me, I don't even love myself
I can do this on my own, and I don't need nobody else
When I was out and all about, nobody gave me anytime
I never ask for any help, so why you always ask for my?
Four walls in my room started caving
Don't know why things have to be so complicated

I don't really need new friends, oh no
I can count 'em on one hand, on god
Showed up to the function when it's already over
Should've just stayed home, oh well

I'm having trouble breaking habits 'cause I never learn

Scarecrow, only good at pushing people away

I just blast off and [?] to the ground
I don't wanna take no pics, I don't wanna show my face no more
I don't want no family fortune, I just wanna be alone
Steady making art 'cause it's the only thing that keeps me going
I don't really fuck with y'all, I'm posted on my own
Always thinking everything while sitting on the floor
Before [?], I gotta hit some people back
[?] but I don't wanna talk at all

I don't really need new friends, oh no
I can count 'em on one hand, on god
Showed up to the function when it's already over
Should've just stayed home, oh well
