fats'e

I think it just takes me by surprise
I don't know why she had to know
And I can barely move at all
You are the spider on my wall

I think it just takes me by surprise
I don't know why she had to know
And I can barely move at all
You are the spider on my wall

Yeah, yeah
I been so secure that
At least I finally got the quids out my bed
And I don't ever dream in my sleep
And I won't come to bed, it's too hot in the white sheets
I don't want you to go out and let your friends know
'Cause you know all of this is nothing circumstantial
I tried to call you at three but what do I know?
Thought [?]

I think it just takes me by surprise
Baby I can't lie
I just can't decide
Called me at a bad time (called me at a bad time)

Tryna get my head right
I just can't decide
I just can't decide

I think it just takes me by surprise
I don't know why she had to know
And I can barely move at all
You are the spider on my wall

I think it just takes me by surprise
Why she had it know
Can barely move at all
You are the spider on my wall
