

URDEAD2ME

fats'e

I'm sorry that I lied
You come to me with teary eyes
You want me back? Blink twice
I keep my heart on ice

She told me "Baby now you're dead to me"
I broke your heart and now we're enemies
And now this pain is just a part of me
I can't escape it's my reality
Maybe in another life
I can feel the comfort of a thousand knives
Witches all around me and they sympathize
I believe in magic of a different kind

I guess I'm the bad guy that don't care how you feel Yeah you took your pics off IG so I know that this real
How could you ruin me? You became a part of me
How could I foolishly fuck this all up, yeah honestly
Yeah it keeps getting worse and it never gets better
I put my full heart into this and now I'm calling surrender
I guess I'll just keep on drinking, I'm never gonna give up
It's whatever babe, promise it's whatever babe

I'm sorry that I lied
You come to me with teary eyes
You want me back? Blink twice
I keep my heart on ice

She told me "baby now you're dead to me"
I broke your heart and now we're enemies
And now this pain is just a part of me
I can't escape it's my reality
Maybe in another life
I can feel the comfort of a thousand knives
