

Fire & Castration

Faun Fables

I've got a charm
tied around my neck
my arm
each and every one
preventing harm
This one's for me
and this one is too
but this I've been saving always and only for you This one's for fire protection This one's for castration protection This one's for peace and this one's for feeze and the day that they work is the day that you know that they weren't made in vain
