

Door into Debris

Faust

Crushing the roof
That meant world to you
Your safe space
Turned into debris

Suffocating dust
Covering your body
Lost shrapnel
Mutilating loved ones
CRASH!
BOMBING!
Becomes daily routine
Yet you can't go numb!

The world's watching silently
Your endless misery

Warmachine's rolling
Squeezes bones out of your body
Taking your freedom
With violence and greed

So open the door
You need no key for
And make a difference
So open the door
You need no key for
And make a difference!

Under the siege
Where options are limited
Under the siege
Where misery never stops
Under the siege
Halfway in hell
Under the siege
Where hope lasts as long
As you're able to go!

Where hope lasts only as long
As you're able to go!
