

You said you wanna party with friends
But all the time you lose your mind
You said you wouldn't lie to my ears
But lately I've been sick and tired
You ex and say you've always been here
Your morning breath breathes love will die
Vrytime I say I wanna switch gears
My stupid heart will press decline

Parle le le, parle le le, parle le le, pompom
Cuz I'm ready to throw you out like a wrap of tom tom
I am looking to get rid of parties
That are telling me not to depart here
Saying you are my Ghandi

Parle le le, parle le le, parle le le, pompom
Cuz I'm ready to throw you out like a wrap of tom tom
I am looking to get rid of parties
That are telling me not to depart here
Saying you are my Ghandi

You know I've been here
Waiting on some love, darling
Waiting on some work, honey
You can drink me up
Cuz regardless you cheat
Or hatch a brand new trick, darling
I will still be here, honey
You can drink me up

Parle le le, parle le le, parle le le, pompom
Cuz I'm ready to throw you out like a wrap of tom tom
I am looking to get rid of parties
That are telling me not to depart here
Saying you are my Ghandi

Parle le le, parle le le, parle le le, pompom
Cuz I'm ready to throw you out like a wrap of tom tom
I am looking to get rid of parties
That are telling me not to depart here
Saying you are my Ghandi

I'm craving Martin
I'm craving Martin
Remy the liquor
Not Remy baggins
Drinks in the garden
Like say na party
Feels like we're living fast
With you, I like it

I'm craving Martin
I'm craving Martin
Remy the liquor
Not Remy baggins
Drinks in the garden
Like say na party

Feels like we're living fast
With you, I like it

You said you wanna party with friends
But all the time you lose your mind
You said you wouldn't lie to my ears
But lately I've been sick and tired
