

If I fly away and go hunting
Will you come with?
If my head is too big to carry
Will you hold me?

If I fly away and go hunting
Will you come with?
If my head is too big to carry
Will you hold me?

Look me in the eyes
Don't lie to me
Who would expect that you're next to me?

In a million years
You're my fantasy
I would never leave you
For nobody-body

Look me in the eyes
Don't lie to me
Who would expect that you're next to me?

In a million years
You're my fantasy
I would never leave you
For nobody-body

Never leave you for nobody-body
Never leave you for nobody-body
Never leave you for nobody-body
Never leave you for nobody-body

Who zombie gon be
For this kin thing?
Na shoot and kill

Anybody wey wan stop me
From this magic
That your love brings

So steady we dey go
I'll let you control me
Pose for your magazine
Reggie trolling

Teach you how walk in style
And fashion boldly
I can never say
You're not the one for me

There's no shame in loving you
It's no mistake I fell for you
Tell me what else that I could do
To prove that I'm the one for you

There's no shame in loving you

It's no mistake I fell for you
Tell me what else that I could do
To prove that I'm the one for you

Look me in the eyes
Don't lie to me
Who would expect that you're next to me?

In a million years
You're my fantasy
I would never leave you
For nobody-body

Never leave you for nobody-body
Never leave you for nobody-body
Never leave you for nobody-body
Never leave you for nobody-body

Never leave you for nobody-body
Never leave you for nobody-body
Never leave you for nobody-body
Never leave you for nobody-body

Nobody-body
Never leave you for nobody-body
