

My Days Off the Hook

Favez

Wait
I'm not out yet
I'm barely through the door
I'm going to wait a little more

I'll take
Just one look
And then I'll step back in
Where I'm off the hook

And hey
It's alright, I'm still the same
It's just sadness with a curse and a longer name
I won't come out till I hear silence
Or nothing louder than my voice

Safe
For a while
Of what I have become
Of everything I've done

Straight
Down that road
There's heaven I've been told

And hey
It's alright, I'm still the same
It's just sadness with a curse and a longer name
I won't come out till I hear silence
Until it's quiet
I won't come out
Until the voices
All shut up
